

child, in the same position that it is found in the original. In birth dates, the letter b. has been substituted for geboren or born, the name of the month has been abbreviated in uniform style, and the year date has been copied or omitted to agree with the original record.

On original page 237 of the church record may be found a copy of an agreement between the Congregations of Wawarsing and Rochester, dated Oct. 16, 1745. It was agreed that the line of separation between the two Congregations should run from southeast to northwest, at the house of Jacob Hardenbergh, who will belong to Wawarsing. It was signed by Jacobus Du Puy, Cornelus Hoornbeeck, Josaphat Du Bois and Jacob Vernoy, Consistory of Rochester; and E. D Witt, Abraham Bevier, Johannes Vernoy and Lourens Kortrecht, Church Masters of Wawarsing. The handwriting is that of Dom. Johannes Casparus Fryenmoet, who made nearly all of the entries throughout the record, up to October, 1755. The title page, in his handwriting, is rendered in the original Dutch and is followed by a translation.

* The spelling of this entire entry is poor; see entries 22 and 35.

* First written "Frenau," but later corrected in a different hand.

* Manuscript destroyed.

† Manuscript illegible.

* Between original pages 8 and 9, there is pasted in the church record, a triangular section of the top part of a leaf that was not included in the original pagination. Only five of the entries on this leaf were transcribed in the Burhans copy. It will be noticed that the entries on this page begin in the year 1761. There may be a leaf missing, which contained entries subsequent to May 7, 1758. If so it was lost many years ago and before the pagination was affixed.

* The name and the year of birth were written near the torn edge of the page, in later years. While probably authentic, this cannot be regarded as a part of the original record.

* See entries 136, 166, etc.

¹⁰ Entries 95, 96, 97 and 98, were recorded by Dom. Thomas Romeyn, at the time pastor of the Minisink valley congregations. The year date presumably, is 1764. Two more entries follow on the same date, though in a different hand. Dom. Romeyn was such a poor writer that he often delegated the task to other persons, when the opportunity presented itself.

¹¹ See entry 39.

¹² See entries 28, 41 and 82; when the Burhans copy was made the name was probably complete and was transcribed "Etinge."
