<sup>17</sup> This entry was written so poorly and the ink faded so rapidly, that in later years they could not find it. It is repeated as entry 556.

<sup>18</sup> The recorder first wrote the name "Jenneke" and then crossed it out. The date of birth was written by the Rev. Ralph A. Westervelt, pastor 1802 to 1808.

<sup>19</sup> Entries 291, 292, 294, 295, 296 and 297 are very much faded. The names of the parents and children and the dates of births, have been traced in ink over the original writing, thereby removing any opportunity to decipher what was written underneath.

† Manuscript illegible.

<sup>20</sup> There are no baptism dates for entries 294 and 295; this is proved by the birth dates, providing they were correctly traced.

<sup>21</sup> The person making the ink tracings has repeated these names below the entry. The date "Sept. 2" is inked in, but the year date "1778" is perfectly legible as originally written.

* Manuscript destroyed.

22 Certain parts of this entry, within brackets, are illegible; there is enough left of the first and last items, for them to be guessed at with reasonable certainty. The name of the child appears to have been deliberately erased and it could not be supplied without reference to the New Paltz church record.

1786	359 William Dewitt Susanna Chambers	Elizabeth, b. Aug. 7
1786	360 Ruben Dewitt Elizabeth Depuy	James Clin- ton, b. July 18	James Clinton Maria Dewitt

<sup>24</sup> A marriage was entered by the same recorder on May 28, 1786. Therefore the actual date of these baptisms was probably May 30.

<sup>25</sup> The reader will observe that this recorder was weak on dates. This is another of the "Feb. 30" baptisms. The actual date of birth was Dec. 13, 1785; of baptism May 30, 1786.

<sup>26</sup> The date has been corrected. It may be either "18" or "20."

* Manuscript destroyed.

** In my opinion this date is not a part of the original record. Therefore it is bracketed, though now written in the record.

** See entry 380.
